PART II—Section 4

Statutory Rules and Orders issued by the Ministry of Defence

MINISTRY OF DEFENCE

New Delhi, the 1st February 1962

S.R.O. 49.—The following bye-laws for the regulation of the stabling or herding of animals and for the licensing of premises for use as stables or cow houses in the Jabalpur Cantonment, framed by the Cantonment Board, Jabalpur, in exercise of the powers conferred by clauses (11) and (37) of section 282 and section 283 of the Cantonments Act, 1924 (2 of 1924), in supersession of the bye-laws issued with the notification of the late Government of Central Provinces No. 1607-1485-II, dated the 12th August, 1931, are hereby published for general information the same having been previously published and having been approved and confirmed by the Central Government, as required by subsection (1) of section 284 of the said Act, namely:—

Bye-laws for the regulation of the stabling or herding of animals and for the licensing of premises for use as Stables or Cow Houses in the Jabalpur Cantonment.

1. Definitions—For the purposes of these bye-laws:—

- (a) "Stable" means any house, shed or building or room in a house, shed or building in which horses, ponies, mules or donkeys are lodged and fed;
- (b) "Cow House" means a house, shed or building or room in a house, shed or building in which horned cattle are lodged and fed.

2. No person shall use any stable or cow house within the Cantonment for stabling or herding of animals unless a licence in the form specified in Appendix 'A' to these byelaws has been granted to him for such purpose in accordance with the provisions of these bye-laws.

3. Every person desiring to take out such licence shall apply to the Executive Officer and the Executive Officer may grant the licence or for reasons to be recorded may refuse it. The number of animals to be stabled or herded in any premises shall be determined by the Executive Officer.

4. Every licence issued under these bye-laws shall be in force from the date on which it is issued until the 31st day of March next following.

5. The premises used as 'Stable' and 'Cow House' shall conform to the following conditions:—

- (i) the premises should not be less than 7' in height measured from the floor to the wall plate; provided that existing stables which are less than 7' in height may be used if a window and door are fixed for cross ventilation with flooring of cement or impervious material with rough surface so that the cattle do not slip and drain to let off urine to main drain or soakage pit. The drainage arrangements should be arranged to the satisfaction of Health Authorities of the Board;

- (ii) the floor of the premises should be paved with some impervious material and sloped away towards the drain, provided that the existing stables whose floor does not conform to the above condition may be used if they have satisfactory arrangements for drainage;
- (iii) the premises should be provided with adequate ventilation;
- (iv) there should be no opening from the premises likely to permit direct ventilation therefrom into any cooking place or any place used for human habitation;
- (v) the licensee of the stable shall not permit any person to cook food in the 'stable' or to use it for human habitation;
- (vi) the licensee of the stable or cow house shall provide in some convenient place a receptacle or receptacles of such form and of such materials as the Executive Officer may direct, for dung, litter, and rubbish;
- (vii) the licensee of the stable or cow house shall not keep any litter or dung in such a situation or manner as to pollute any drinking water;
- (viii) the licensee of the stable or cow house shall cause the premises of the stable to be properly cleaned twice daily, once in the morning and once again in the evening, and to be washed down once every week;
- (ix) the licensee of the stable or cow house shall make suitable arrangements to the satisfaction of the Executive Officer for the daily removal or disposal of litter, dung and rubbish;
- (x) the licensee of the stable or cow house shall give every facility to the Executive Officer or any other Officer or servant authorised by the Board in this behalf to inspect the premises and animals kept thereon, at any reasonable time;
- (xi) on the occurrence of any outbreak of infectious disease among the cattle the keeper of the cattle shall immediately inform the Executive Officer of the fact and shall segregate the animals pending his orders.

6. A licence shall not be granted for any premises situated underneath any place used for human habitation, unless the ceiling of the premises is separated from the floor of such place by an un-broken layer of atleast 3 of concrete, stone, brick or mud.

7. Before a licence is granted, the premises shall be inspected by the Health Officer or any person authorised by him in his behalf. A licence may be granted only when the sanitary conditions as stipulated are found adequate and Health Officer or the person authorised by him to inspect the premises recommends the grant of licence.

8. The Executive Officer may suspend or cancel any licence for breach of any of the provisions of these bye-laws or of any of the conditions of the licence, as specified in Appendix 'A' to these bye-laws, if so reported upon by the Health Authorities.

9. Any person contravening any of the above bye-laws shall on conviction be punishable with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees or in the case of a continuing contravention with an additional fine which may extend to twenty rupees for every day during which such contravention continues after conviction for the first such contravention.
